YOUR CHRISTMAS MAGIC ESCAPE

France is part of the Schengen Area. Lebanese passport holders require a visa to enter — here's what you need to know before booking.

1 Visa Required Before Travel

Lebanese citizens must obtain a short-stay Schengen visa in advance — it is not available on arrival. The visa allows a stay of up to 90 days within any 180-day period across the Schengen Area.

2 Where to Apply

Applications are submitted through the Embassy or Consulate of France (or an authorized visa center) in Beirut. If Paris is your main or first Schengen destination, you apply through the French authorities.

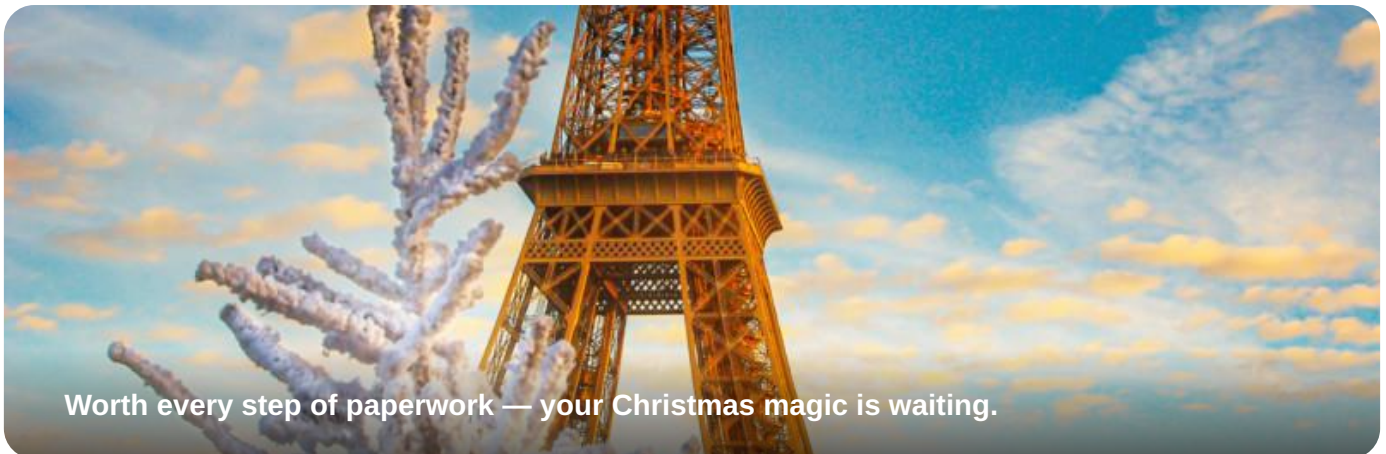

3 Typical Documents Required

Valid passport (with sufficient validity beyond your travel dates), passport photos, flight itinerary, hotel bookings, travel/health insurance, proof of funds, and civil status/employment documents. Exact requirements are set by the consulate.

4 Apply Early

Processing times vary and can extend during peak season. We recommend applying as soon as your travel dates are confirmed — ideally several weeks before departure.

Important: Visa fees, appointment scheduling, and approval are not included in this package and are not guaranteed. Approval is at the sole discretion of the French consular authorities. We're happy to guide you through the required documents — contact our team for support.
